

The flyway approach to the conservation and wise use of waterbirds and wetlands

AEWA Regional Training of Trainers Workshop for Western Indian Ocean Islands Mauritius, 6-10 February 2023

Date	Morning			Afternoon
Sunday 5 February	Arrival of participants
Monday 6 February	Registration & Participant presentation	Opening ceremony for World Wetlands Day & WMBD	Introduction to the workshop Module 1 S1: Migration and the flyway approach to conservation	Module 1 S2. Migration strategies and the importance of sites; AEWA birds of the Indian Ocean & other migratory species	Module 1 S3. Threats along the flyway / for migratory species	Introduce capacity-building project application process
Tuesday 7 February	WWD Field visit to Rivulet Terre Rouge: Bird-watching, discussions, communications			Module 2 S1: Wetland & waterbird monitoring	Module 3 S2: Campaigns & awareness
Wednesday 8 February	Module 2 S1. Species conservation and wise use Module 2 S2. Conservation of species – species action plans / networks			Module 2 S3. Site conservation in a flyway context Module 2 S4. Site management in a flyway context
Thursday 9 February	Field visit to Ile aux Aigrettes			Visit Pointe d'Esny Ramsar Site & Blue Bay
Friday 10 February	Module 2: S5. Policies, valuation and capacity-building	Module 3 S2: Communications; Quiz		Review project proposals	Workshop follow-up / networking; Evaluation; Workshop close
Saturday 11 February	Departure of participants

Timetable: Morning sessions: 08:45-12:45. Afternoon sessions: 14:00-17:00. Lunch between 12:45 and 14:00. Coffee breaks provided. Timetable for field visits will be provided on Monday 6th February.