Accommodation

Rooms have been reserved for funded participants by OMPO and details regarding the hotel arrangements will be communicated to those participants directly.

Non-sponsored participants are kindly requested to make their own hotel bookings.

Visas

All registered meeting participants requiring visas will be provided with personal invitation letters as well as verbal notes to support their visa applications. Please note that it is absolutely necessary that you obtain your visa before travelling to France. France does not issue visas on arrival and airlines will not allow you to board your flight to the Schengen area without a valid visa.

The visa costs of funded participants will be reimbursed against receipts by OMPO during the meeting.

Participants experiencing any difficulties with immigration or customs upon arrival in France should contact the meeting organisers (see contact information above).

Arrival at the airport

Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport (CDG) is located approx. 23 kilometres northeast of Paris and has extensive road and rail links to the capital city. From CDG Airport, it takes about 45 minutes to get to the centre of Paris.

There are three terminals at Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport - also known as Paris Roissy - which are connected by free shuttle buses.

The quickest & least expensive way from Roissy-Charles de Gaulle (CDG) Airport to Paris is by taking the RER B city train leaving from either CDG Terminal 2 or Roissypole (RER trains for CDG Terminal 1 and CDG Terminal 3). For further details and ticket prices etc. please see: <http://parisbytrain.com/charles-de-gaulle-airport-cdg-to-paris-by-train/>.

Paris Orly Airport (ORY) is located 14 km south of central Paris, on the opposite side of the city from Charles de Gaulle. It has two terminals, Orly-Sud and Orly-Ouest.

Transportation options into Paris include the train, several bus lines, taxis, and shuttle vans. For more information, please see: <http://www.airport-orly.com/trains-and-metro.php>.

Arrival by train

Paris can be reached by train from all major European cities. All 7 stations bring you right into the heart of the city: Gare du Nord, Gare de l'Est, Gare Saint-Lazare, Gare Montparnasse, Gare de Lyon, Gare de Bercy, Gare d'Austerlitz. Centrally located and each with specific destinations, they offer smooth connections with the public transport network (metro, RER, bus). For more information regarding train connections and prices, please see: <http://www.sncf.com/en/passengers>.

Meeting languages, documents and WIFI

The meeting languages will be English and French, English-French simultaneous interpretation provided by the host country.

All meeting documents will be made available online on the AEWA website in English:

<http://www.unep-aewa.org/en/meeting/inter-governmental-meeting-establishment-european-goose-management-platform-under-auspices>

Hard paper copies of the meeting documents will not be distributed before or during the meeting. However, free wireless internet will be available to all participants in the meeting room.

Meals

Lunch will be provided free of charge for all meeting participants on the two meeting days. Likewise complementary refreshments will be provided during the mid-morning and mid-afternoon coffee breaks. The Ministry of Environment will also be hosting a dinner for all participants on the evening of the 11th of May, for which further details will be provided at the meeting.
