AEWA EUROPEAN GOOSE MANAGEMENT INTERNATIONAL WORKING GROUP TASK FORCES

1. Introduction

As outlined in Rule 29 in the Modus Operandi adopted for the AEWA European Goose Management International Working Group (EGM IWG) at its first meeting in December 2016, the Working Group may establish species and/or thematic Task Forces as necessary to deal with the preparation and coordination of decision papers and background documents for the EGM IWG as well as to deal with other specific tasks as requested by the Working Group. The Modus Operandi further outline, that the EGM IWG shall define the terms of reference and composition of each Task Force.

2. Generic Terms of Reference for Task Forces established under the EGM IWG

As such, the UNEP/AEWA Secretariat has drafted generic Terms of Reference (Annex I) for consideration and adoption by the EGM IWG at its second meeting in June 2017, which will serve as the basis for the overall roles, functioning and composition of future Task Forces established under the Working Group. The draft is largely based on the Terms of Reference for AEWA Species Working Groups as developed and approved by the AEWA Technical Committee at its 9th Meeting in 2009.

The Secretariat will then tailor Terms of Reference for each new Task Force, based on the agreed generic template. These tailored Task Force-specific Terms of Reference will either be submitted to meetings of the EGM IWG for adoption or will be submitted to the EGM IWG members for adoption inter-sessionally via correspondence. In future, such confirmations could also be handled via the EGMP website and members-only workspace, which is foreseen to be established during the second half of 2017.

3. Convening of Task Forces

Following a decision by the EGM IWG to establish a new Task Force and following the approval of Terms of Reference for said Task Force (as described above), the UNEP/AEWA Secretariat will proceed with convening the Task Force by contacting the EGM IWG national government representatives as well as the confirmed observer organizations via email with a request to designate representatives to the Task Force. The Secretariat will keep up-to-date lists on the membership of each Task Force and will report back on the status of the establishment and composition of the respective Task Forces to each meeting of the EGM IWG as part of the overall overview on the running of the EGMP.
The Secretariat will also attempt to identify a volunteer Coordinator for each Task Force, who will act as the main driver of the work and as the liaison between the Task Force and the Secretariat as well as the EGMP Data Centre and will also assume chairing functions for the Task Force, as necessary.

4. Task Force membership and expected input

Considering the restrictions on the size of national delegations to meetings of the EGM IWG, as outlined in the Modus Operandi and, as further clarified in the Guidance on the Composition of National Delegations prepared by the Secretariat (EGM IWG Doc. 2.3), as well as the agreed limit of one representative per observer organisation, membership to the various EGM IWG Task Forces is suggested to be less restricted. Range States and observer organisations are encouraged to engage a wider array of appropriate national experts and specialists as well as national stakeholders in addition to the members of national delegations and the representatives of the permanent observer organizations already involved closely in the EGM IWG.

The nomination of Task Force members will, however, remain at the discretion of the designated government representatives to the EGM IWG as well as at the discretion of the management of the admitted permanent observer organisations. In addition, Task Force Coordinators may, in collaboration with the Secretariat and the Data Centre, involve additional experts and/or organizations in the work of the Task Force, if necessary. Should this extend to inviting additional national experts/organizations from an EGMP Range State, the Secretariat will secure approval from the respective designated government representative prior to the invitation being issued.

The workload of the various Task Forces will vary, depending on the extent of the tasks and deadlines set by the EGM IWG. At the minimum Task Force members will be expected to comment on and contribute to any documents etc. that are being drafted and circulated within the Task Force, including participating in skype calls or other web-based meetings.

The best-case scenario would be if countries and observer organizations could designate experts/organizations to the Task Forces who would have the capacity to participate actively and to take on some of the necessary drafting and other tasks, as part of their regular work. It would help to share the workload amongst countries and would also keep costs down, if the suggested experts could devote some of their working time to completing tasks under the EGMP and the EGM IWG.

Although the EGM IWG will adopt general Terms of Reference to guide the work of each Task Force, it is expected that the Task Forces will plan their own work led by the identified Coordinator and also decide how they want to organise themselves in terms of delivering the outputs requested by the EGM IWG. In this respect, the Secretariat and the EGMP Data Centre will support the work of the Task Forces and will be also involved in the planning of their work.

Although there are currently no funds allocated under the EGMP structure and budget for the Task Forces, the Task Forces will be encouraged to meet annually directly before the meetings of the EGM IWG. Task Force Coordinators and members will also be free to arrange face-to-face meetings if opportunities present themselves, for example in the margins of other meetings or conferences.

Reporting on the overall functioning of the Task Forces to meetings of the EGM IWG will be coordinated by the Secretariat, as mentioned above under point 3. For this, reports on activities and the submission of outputs will be collected by each Task Force Coordinator and provided to the Secretariat.
5. Convened Task Forces and Task Forces recommended to be established

5.1. AEWA EGM IWG Agriculture Task Force

At its first meeting in December 2016, the EGM IWG decided to establish a Task Force to develop an international framework for dealing with agricultural conflicts caused by geese. The EGM IWG Agriculture Task Force was subsequently convened by the UNEP/AEWA Secretariat in January 2017, and currently consists of designated representatives from six EGMP Range States.

The Secretariat has drafted Terms of Reference for the Agriculture Task Force (Annex II) based on the proposed generic template, which the EGM IWG is invited to review and adopt at its second meeting in June 2017.

5.2. Establishment of additional Task Forces

With the establishment of the European Goose Management Platform (EGMP) and the EGM IWG as its intergovernmental coordinating and decision-making body, separate AEWA International Species Working Groups will no longer be convened by the Secretariat to guide and coordinate the individual implementation of the International Species Action and Management Plans included in the remit of the EGMP.

There will, however, still be need for coordinated cooperation amongst Range States to ensure delivery of all the objectives and results in each Action and Management Plan – in particular, those not related to possible adaptive harvest management. In addition, there will be a need to provide species-specific input to the EGMP Data Centre in the inter-sessional periods between meetings of the EGM IWG, and such species-specific Task Forces would be expected to support the provision of information required.

As such, the following species-specific Task Forces are recommended to be established at present:

- Pink-footed Goose (Anser brachyrhynchus);
- Taiga Bean Goose (Anser f. fabalis).

Action Requested from the EGM IWG

The EGM IWG is requested to:

- review and adopt the generic Terms of Reference for Task Forces to be established under the Working Group (Annex I);
- review and adopt the specific Terms of Reference for the AEWA EGM IWG Agriculture Task Force, considering potential changes made to the draft generic Terms of Reference before their final adoption (Annex II);
- decide on the establishment of species-specific Task Forces for the Pink-footed and the Taiga Bean Goose.
